PHOTO RELEASE – June 18, 2015 – From June 9-12, the all-new Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort hosted a series of entertainment auditions to cast South Florida’s best talent as part of the resort’s elite entertainment team. Hundreds of local musical performers including bands, duos and solo acts attended auditions at Private Stock Studios over the course of the week.

“It was a dynamic week! The level of talent that exists in South Florida is very impressive. I am truly excited that Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort will showcase such an outstanding array of live entertainers,” said Cate Farmer, Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort’s general manager. “On behalf of the entire resort team, I would like to thank all of the amazing, accomplished musicians and performers who auditioned with us last week. Music is an important piece of the Margaritaville story, and the resort will be unlike any other venue in South Florida. We will be proud to feature such talented local artists across our various entertainment areas at the property.”

Selected artists will perform at the various live venues across the resort, including; Jimmy Buffett’s Margaritaville, 5 o’Clock Somewhere Bar & Grill and the famed Hollywood Bandshell. Live entertainment will be available to local residents and resort guests daily once the property opens its doors.
