MARGARITAVILLE HOLLYWOOD BEACH RESORT ISSUES CALL FOR ENTERTAINERS, ANNOUNCES JUNE AUDITIONS

Seasoned Performing Arts Industry Expert, Ron Green, Appointed to Lead Entertainment Department for New-Build Resort

Hollywood, Fla. – May 27, 2015 – The new-build Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort (pictured left), opening later this year on the legendary Hollywood Beach Boardwalk in Hollywood, Florida, has announced that qualified auditions will be held in order to secure potential musical entertainers. Bands, duos and solo acoustic guitarists are invited to submit demos online now, and selected acts will be invited for in-person auditions taking place June 9-12.

"We are excited to invite local performers to audition for the chance to become part of Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort's live entertainment team," said Cate Farmer, the resort's general manager. "The Margaritaville brand has a rich history of providing great entertainment and at the new Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort, our goal is to identify memorable, innovative musical acts that will engage our guests and convey the feeling of paradise found. We recognize the incredible musical talent that is present in South Florida and look forward to starting the casting process."

Led by the resort's newly appointed entertainment director, Ron Green, the Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort will manage entertainment at the famed Hollywood Bandshell, in addition to featuring daily live entertainment on property at Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville and 5 o'Clock Somewhere.

"Ron will play an integral role in the audition process and once we open, will manage the resort's entertainment talent," said Farmer. "Ron's passion for the industry and his experience as an entertainer and manager will ensure we are positioned to find the very best artists and performers for our multiple venues. We are thrilled to have him join our Margaritaville Hollywood Beach Resort family."

Applicants must be able to play an array of cover songs that connect with audience members of all ages, including classic rock, country, Top 40 tunes and more. Auditions are by appointment only. To submit a demo and for more information, visit www.margaritavilleresorts.com/auditions.
